

Beer Battered Fish with Homemade Chips

Create your own beer battered fish with chips using our ethical and sustainable fish

Serves: 2

Prepare: 15 Minutes Cook: 20 Minutes Difficulty: Easy

Ingredients

For The Fish

- 200g haddock fillets
- 100g plain flour
- 1tsp baking powder
- 1tsp lemon & pepper crust
- 1tsp salt
- 1tsp pepper
- 150ml cold beer (alternatively, you can use soda water)
- lemons (to garnish)

For The Chips

- 3 potatoes
- oil
- 1tsp salt
- 1tsp pepper

Method

- 1. Preheat oven to 200°C/ 180°C fan
- Slice the potatoes up however you like your chips and lay out on a baking tray. Add oil, salt and pepper and place in the oven for 20-25 minutes or until golden and crisp
- 3. Remove your fish from the fridge and bring to room temperature, dab dry with some kitchen towel
- 4. Mix the flour, salt, pepper, lemon and pepper crust and baking powder in a bowl. Slowly whisk in the beer or soda water
- 5. Pour the oil into a deep pan or wok, you want enough oil in there to cover the fish completely, bring to a high heat
- 6. Cover the fish in a little flour then the batter, carefully add it to the oil and cook for 4-5 minutes (turn halfway through) or until golden and cooked through
- Remove from the oil and lay the fish onto some paper towel to remove any excess oil
- 8. Serve with your homemade chips and a slice of lemon (plus tartare sauce and mushy peas for the ultimate plateful)
